Arlington Update

May 2026

Annual General Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the 156th Annual General Meeting of the Arlington Baths Club will take place on Wednesday 27th May at 6:00pm.

Please take a look at our club constitution here for information about the democratic processes within the club.

If you have any questions or want to know more about how to participate or get involved, please contact our General Manager James Findlay and he will be happy to meet with you and provide any further details you require.

Agenda

1. Minutes of the Annual General Meeting of 27th May 2025
2. Report & Accounts for the year ending 31st March 2026
3. Election of Board Members
4. Any Other Competent Business
 - Setting of membership fees

Staffing

We're pleased to welcome Daria Oberholzer to the team, who has recently joined the Club in a full-time position and is already settling into the role well. Looking ahead, we're also delighted that Effie Doyle and Jack Young will soon be completing their studies and moving into full-time roles with us. This is a positive step in strengthening our core staff team, providing greater consistency for members and supporting the continued day-to-day running of the Club

Events

John Lammie - Friday 8th May

We're delighted to host a new exhibition in the Reading Room by local artist John Lammie. Based in Glasgow and working from a studio in The Hidden Lane, Finnieston, John draws on a wide range of influences—from his upbringing on a hill farm on the Isle of Arran to 20th century abstraction, textiles, and the colours of India. His work, primarily acrylic on wood, panel and canvas, often incorporates recycled materials, giving each piece a distinctive character and story.

The exhibition opens on Friday 8th May, 6:00–9:00pm, and all are welcome to attend. Entry is free.

Gala Day

We're looking forward to this year's Club Gala Day, taking place on Saturday 27th June from 12:00pm to 4:00pm. As part of the wider WestFest programme, the day will have a strong community focus, welcoming both members and visitors to enjoy the Club. This year's event will also celebrate the Commonwealth Games, with Glasgow once again hosting, and we'll be reflecting this theme across a range of planned activities.

A number of events are already in the pipeline, but we'd be delighted to hear from members who may have ideas to contribute or who would be willing to volunteer on the day. If you're keen to get involved in any way, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Art at the Arlington

We celebrated two artists who have been inspired by the Arlington Baths Club with two unveilings last month.

We were delighted to welcome Lesley Banks and Fouzia Zafar to see their artworks on permanent display in the Members' Lounge, each accompanied by small exhibitions about their practice and how the spaces and people of the Baths have inspired them.

Bike Group

Cycle Ride

Join us for a leisurely cycle ride for members and friends from the Baths and back.

This month's ride is on Sunday 31st May, meeting 10am at the club. Come along and see how the city fits together when you're on a bike.

This will be a gentle paced urban ride to the Burrell Collection and Pollok Park.

Details of all our previous rides are available on the Arlington Baths bike page.

Bring your own bike or you are welcome to borrow one from our new Bike Library. Limited places.

Sunday 31 May, 10am, free

Adult Cycle Training

Adult Cycle Training sessions, fully funded through Cycling Scotland, are available to Arlington members.

These are practical 1:1 cycling courses for adults with all abilities covered from Absolute Beginner to Advanced Commuter.

A session might be worthwhile if you want:

- to feel more confident cycling on the road
- to commute to work or travel to the baths by bike rather than by car
- to start cycling again but you haven't ridden since childhood
- to learn how to ride a bicycle.

You can borrow a bicycle and a helmet from our Bike Library if required.
